

TODAY'S SERMON

The Rev. Erik Dailey

Title: "Sports, Talents, and God"

Date: April 12, 2015

Scripture:

Matthew 25:14-30

'For it is as if a man, going on a journey, summoned his slaves and entrusted his property to them; <sup>15</sup>to one he gave five talents, to another two, to another one, to each according to his ability. Then he went away. <sup>16</sup>The one who had received the five talents went off at once and traded with them, and made five more talents. <sup>17</sup>In the same way, the one who had the two talents made two more talents. <sup>18</sup>But the one who had received the one talent went off and dug a hole in the ground and hid his master's money. <sup>19</sup>After a long time the master of those slaves came and settled accounts with them. <sup>20</sup>Then the one who had received the five talents came forward, bringing five more talents, saying, "Master, you handed over to me five talents; see, I have made five more talents." <sup>21</sup>His master said to him, "Well done, good and trustworthy slave; you have been trustworthy in a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master." <sup>22</sup>And the one with the two talents also came forward, saying, "Master, you handed over to me two talents; see, I have made two more talents." <sup>23</sup>His master said to him, "Well done, good and trustworthy slave; you have been trustworthy in a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master." <sup>24</sup>Then the one who had received the one talent also came forward, saying, "Master, I knew that you were a harsh man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you did not scatter seed; <sup>25</sup>so I was afraid, and I went and hid your talent in the ground. Here you have what is yours." <sup>26</sup>But his master replied, "You wicked and lazy slave! You knew, did you, that I reap where I did not sow, and gather where I did not scatter? <sup>27</sup>Then you ought to have invested my money with the bankers, and on my return I would have received what was my own with interest. <sup>28</sup>So take the talent from him, and give it to the one with the ten talents. <sup>29</sup>For to all those who have, more will be given, and they will have an abundance; but from those who have nothing, even what they have will be taken away. <sup>30</sup>As for this worthless slave, throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth."

ST. JAMES FOOD BANK IS PRESENTLY SERVING ABOUT 50 FAMILIES EACH FRIDAY. Every family unit is given the same bag of food items as well as a choice among extra things which have been donated. Right now they are in need of the following items which fill the bags given to everyone:

(They prefer 15 oz jars since everyone is given the same size)

- 5 to 7 oz cans of tuna
- 15 oz cans of fruit and vegetables
- small jars of peanut butter
- soup
- beans (Not pinto, as they already have dried pinto beans)
- chili con carne
- canned pasta Spaghetti, etc. They do not need dried pastas)
- spaghetti sauce
- macaroni & cheese
- plastic & paper bags
- hotel samples, especially soap & shampoo
- tooth brushes and paste
- eye glasses (Prescription or dark, which they give to the Lion's Club)

In addition, the following volunteer possibilities are available:

- Friday mornings from approximately 8:45 a.m.-10:00 a.m.
- Friday afternoons from 2:15 p.m.- 3:45 p.m.

SINCE OUR PROJECT BEGAN IN 2008, SIP AND STITCH in total has delivered 912 blankets. This year in December we delivered 120 blankets and also 12 caps for the cancer ward at Keck Memorial Hospital's cancer ward. Lots of coffee, fifteen to twenty women, hundreds of skeins of yarn, thousands of knitted squares, and tens of thousands of volunteer hours plus donations from you from the Mission Market makes our project happen. This month we donated 50 lap robes to the Acts of Kindness project through the Angel Interfaith Network. Twelve blankets went to Elizabeth House for unwed homeless teenage girls. Fifty seven blankets and quilts went to the Door of Hope. They recently opened a third facility in Pasadena for Battered men and their children. The blankets are shared between the three facilities. Our goal for 2015 is to reach 1000 blankets. Without you and your donations this would not happen. Thank you.

MUSIC AT NOON ON FRIDAYS, Head on over to our Sanctuary at noon for a FREE 30-minute concert featuring a local artist or ensemble. If you'd like, you can stay after for an optional $4.00 lunch in South Parlor to visit, meet new friends, and to greet the performer or performers. Come be inspired!

Upcoming performers:
4/17- Eileen Holt & Friends, Winds
