Dear Chester,

On behalf of the South Pasadena Arts Council, I would like to personally thank Calvary Church for helping make our first major fundraiser, The Theatre of Terror, a big success. By providing a terrific partnership with us, it set the tone for our successful event. The use of church property was particularly important. It would not have been successful without you.

Thanks to your efforts, our little fundraiser received rave reviews from broadcast news and publications around Southern California. More importantly, Calvary embodied the mission of SPARC by helping support SPARC and our work in bringing art and cultural activity to our community.

It is always a pleasure to partner with committed community folks like yourself that help make South Pasadena the great community it is.

Again, from all of us at SPARC, THANK YOU!!!!

Regards,
